Background

After you bought a NEV, suddenly you appeared in a totally different world. Your body is not yours, it's another guy's. You are cold and hungry, but all you can find from this new body is a cell phone. "Mom" is the only contact in this phone. The messages from "Mom" are all very warm, they warm your cold body in this new world.

Suddenly the phone rings. It is a message from DeAuto telling you that now you own a NEV. It seems you have a new way of living now, however this NEV may be the cause of you are in this new world.

Game Type

This is a surviving game. User needs to find tasks to make money, then upgrades the car in order to make more money to survive this city.

There is also a conspiracy in the dark, user needs to figure out how to stop it.

Plots(1/2)

The guy who you currently are comes to this city 3 years ago to find a job and make money. But now because of gambling, he owes a lot of money. He wants to go home but he cannot afford the ticket of getting out of this city.

“Mom” sends messages regularly. But you haven’t replied since a year ago. You can choose to reply to “Mom” in game, to tell her the real son dies or you can lie to her and pretend you are her son.

Plots(2/2)

There are lots of tourists coming to this city everyday. Only the rich people will travel in this world. You can wait for new tourists at the entrance of the city, and get lots of tips from these tourists. If your service is really good, you can also get new information from other cities, including the story of “You”.

You have a lot more contacts in your phone now, and you pay all your debts. You even get some spare money to enjoy life. But there is something wrong with DeAuto...

Gameplay

1. You have limited stamina. In this city, you can drive or walk. These two ways cost different stamina.
2. You have a garage ball. You can park, repair, and upgrade your car.
3. You can customize the look of your car in garage ball with paints in game store.
4. You can also buy parts in store to upgrade your car. Different parts can upgrade the car's speed, resilience, gas cost etc.
5. You can make money by driving the car to deliver, race or trade cars

Theme

What's the meaning of life? A lot of people trying to make as much money as possible, but usually they ignore what's most important things to them around them. And in the end, no money is made and important people are also gone!
